

Assistance Is Available for Residents Facing Eviction in Jefferson County, KY

Take these steps to protect yourself and avoid eviction.

- 1. Apply For Assistance- Go to STOPMYEVICTION.ORG to get information about rent and utility assistance. If you have an eviction court case, fill out the Jefferson County Eviction Court Assistance Form in the Red Box.

CALL (502) 574-1707 for Additional Guidance

Need In Person Help? The Association of Area Community Ministries has weekly office hours to drop off or pick up applications and answer any questions about rental assistance on Thursday from 10-2 at South Louisville Community Ministries, 415 1/2 W Ashland Ave, Louisville, KY 40214. Bring your lease and your landlord's name, phone number, and email address.

- 2. Call Legal Aid for Legal Assistance- (502) 584-1254

Legal Aid is a free service that can advise people about their rights in eviction court and may be able to represent you during your case. If you are lower income and have a child living in the home you may be guaranteed legal representation.

- 3. Attend your hearing in Eviction Court!

It is CRITICAL that you attend your eviction court hearing - even if you are behind on your rent, have paid your rent, have moved out or plan to move. Attending court will help protect your rights. Agencies will be on to connect you to rental assistance and other services.

You are eligible for additional time to resolve matters with your landlord, BUT ONLY IF YOU ATTEND YOUR COURT HEARING.

Court is being held virtually on zoom or in person. Learn how to attend on the back side of this paper.
